DEMOCRATS REJOICE IN BIGGEST VICTORY IN HISTORY OF PARTY HERE

REPUBLICANS GET ONE SUPERVISOR, TWO HOUSE

Delegate's Heavy Vote On Outside Islands Gives Him Approximately 1100 Majority—Split-Ticket Voting Loses Against Straight-Ticket Democracy

Delegate to Congress, two members of the House of Representatives, city clerk, auditor and attorney, one member of the board of supervisors—this is about the size of the Republican comfort on the island of Oahu as the result of yesterday's election.

Kuhio, though, running more than 800 behind McCandless on Oahu, was given substantial majorities on all the other islands.

Maui and Kauai were swept clean by the Republican party. Oahu was almost a clean sweep for the Democrats, while the parties broke about even on Hawaii.

Andrew Cox was declared elected to the board of supervisors at nine o'clock this morning and unless a recount changes things, wins by a small majority.

There is talk of a recount in several instances, among them those of delegate, which may be contested by McCandless and city attorney. However, none of the talk has yet materialized.

The Star-Bulletin presents on Page 2 complete returns—the first complete returns and as accurate as they could be given after expert work all night, for all the elections on Oahu.

These returns were not finished until shortly before noon today, after ten hours' steady work following the last reports last night. A recount may show some slight changes, but it is not believed they will be sufficient to make any changes in the list of those elected.

A glance at the detailed figures shows what happened better than words can tell. It was split-ticket voting by Republicans and straight ticket voting by Democrats that did it. The city and county government is practically controlled by the Democrats, but the legislature remains Republican.

Clarence Cooke and Norman Watkins were the only Republicans elected to the House on Oahu.

Mayor Fern was re-elected by an easy majority of 1593 over Col. Sam Parker, with Huestace getting less than 700 votes.

Both Clerk Kalaunakalani and Auditor Bicknell were re-elected, but by greatly reduced majorities, and for awhile the going was too close for their comfort. Even at 3 o'clock this morning the result in the race for auditor was not definitely settled.

Senatorial Fight Close.

For a long time last night the senatorial fight was close, but finally the three Democrats began to pull away from their Republican rivals and once to the lead kept it. Jim Coke headed the bunch, polling 4146 votes. Wirtz was next and Laukea followed him. Dowsett led the Republicans with 2777.

Democrats Sweep Most Representative.

Only two Republican representatives out of twelve on this island were elected, C. H. Cooke and Norman Watkins, both in the Fourth district. Split-ticket voting beat the others, for the Democrats stood by their ticket and the Republican votes cast for Democratic candidates were many.

In the Fifth district the Democrats made a clean sweep.

KAUAI GIVES REPUBLICANS STRAIGHT VOTE

(Special Star-Bulletin Wireless)

LIPUKE, Kauai, Nov. 6.—Kauai stood loyal to the Republican party and its principles by carrying the straight ticket through the polls yesterday with flying colors. Prince Kuhio's win on the Garden Island for the delegateship was unquestioned, but the strong run which he made was a source of gratification to his supporters.

But few of the other officers were in doubt, and when the ballot count was half completed it was apparent that the Republicans had won all along the line, and interest in the result ceased. It was a quiet election on the island.

Following was the ticket elected:

Delegate to Congress—J. K. Kalaunakalani.

Senator—Chas. A. Rice.

Representative—J. H. Coner, J. K. Lota, W. J. Sheldon, R. P. Spalding.

Sheriff—Wm. Henry Rice.

County Clerk—J. M. Kaneakua.

County Attorney—S. K. Kaeo.

Auditor—C. Maser.

Supervisors—Waimea, F. Gay; Koloa, W. D. McBryde; Lihue, H. D. Wishard; Kawaihau, J. von Ekekele; Hanalei, A. Menefoglio.

Supervisors.

It was not until ten o'clock this morning that it was definitely known that Andrew Cox was elected to the board of supervisors, making one Republican and six Democrats on the board to go with a Democratic mayor and Democratic county administration generally.

Cox ran slightly behind in the fifth district but ahead in the fourth.

REPUBLICANS SURE OF LEGISLATIVE CONTROL

Republicans will be in control of both the Senate and the House in the next legislature, with a good margin in each, in spite of the Democratic victories on Oahu. Following is the lineup.

SENATE.

Oahu—

Cecil Brown (holder) Republican.

Charles F. Chillingworth (holder) Republican.

James L. Coke, Democrat.

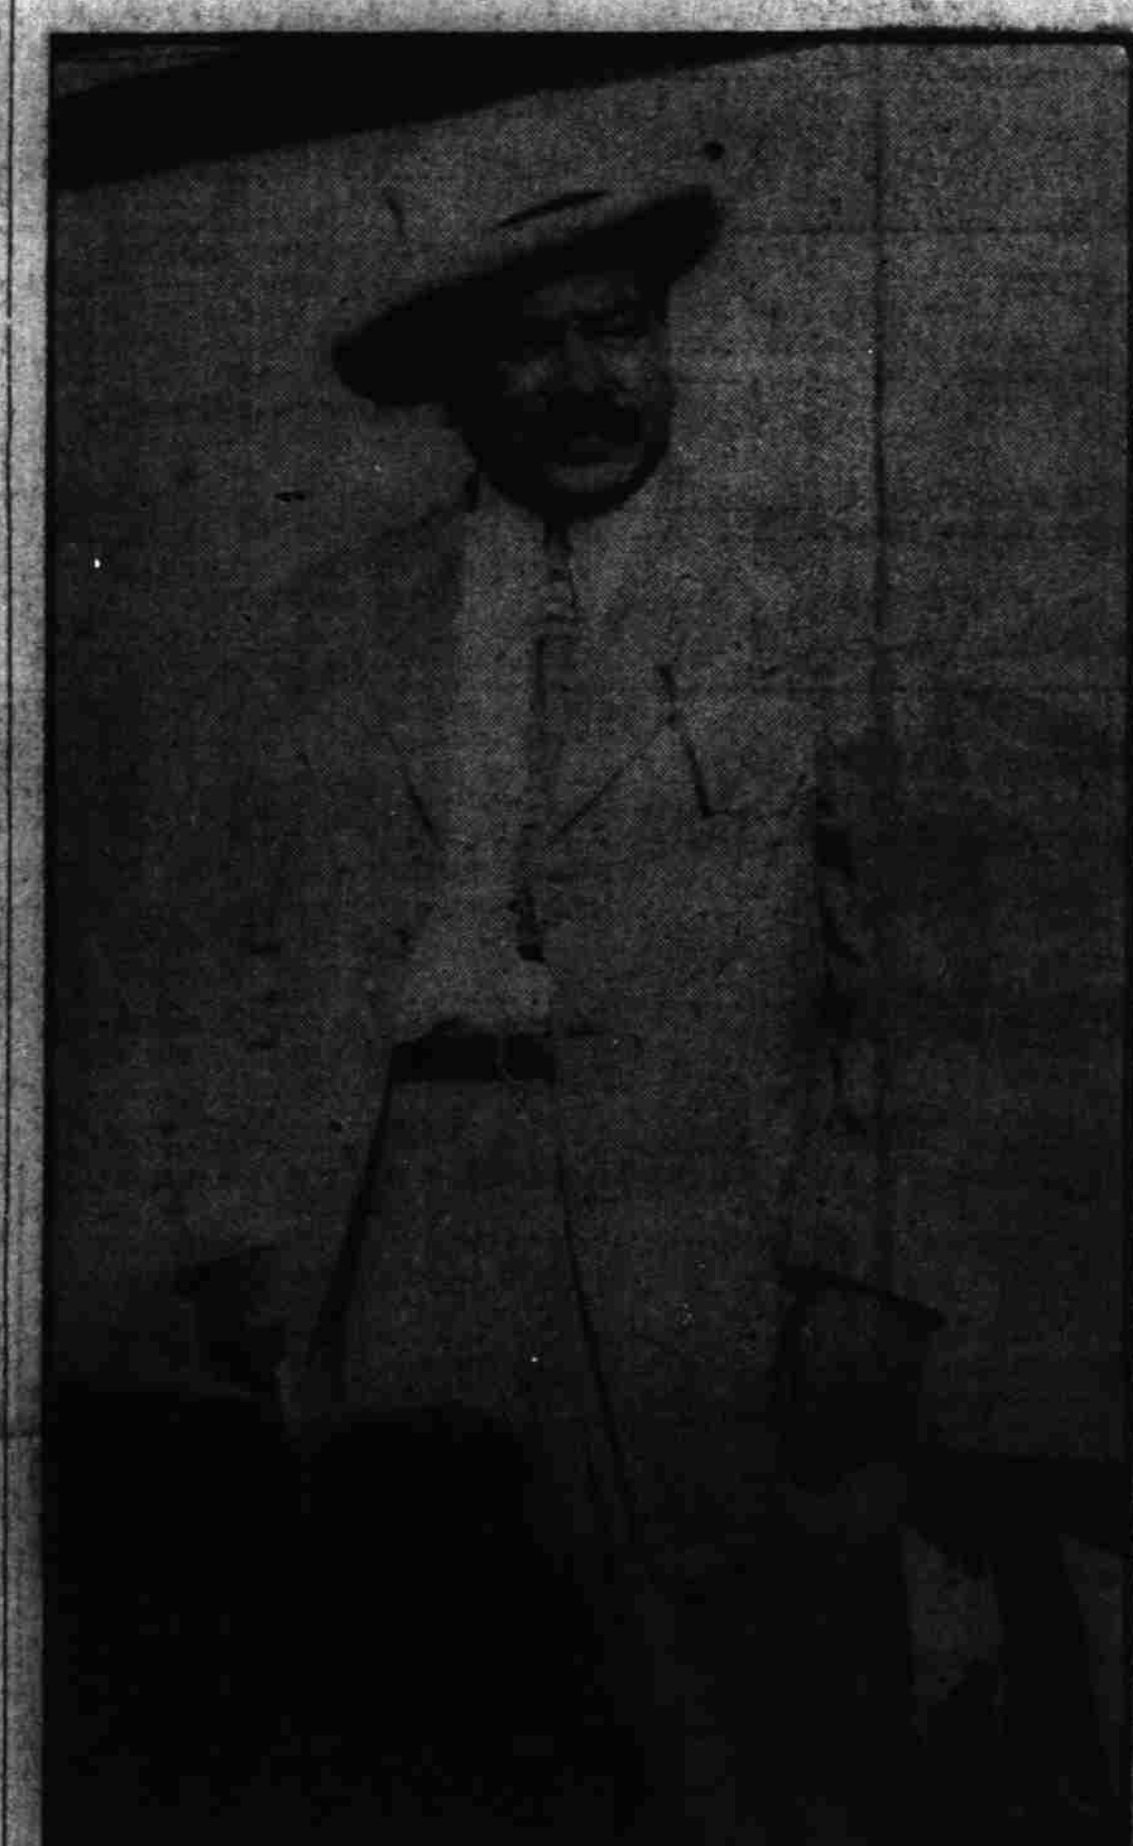

C. P. Laukea, Democrat.

A. F. Judd (holder) Republican.

A. J. Wirtz, Democrat.

GOVERNOR MAKES BRIEF STATEMENT

Governor Frear, asked today whether he will resign if his appointment is duly made by the President and approved by the Senate, said he is prepared to make any statement on that subject at the present time. He probably will make an announcement later however.

Asked concerning his view on the election the Governor said:

"Under the circumstances, especially in view of the delicacy of the situation with reference to myself, I have refrained from expressing opinions or discussing the political situation publicly during the campaign, and the same reasons would seem to suggest that I do not comment specifically on the situation at present. I can say, however, that I am not one of those Republicans who think that Democratic victory means ruin to the country. I have great faith in the sound sense of the people as a whole and believe that conditions cannot go very far wrong without the people sooner or later righting them.

"At the result on the mainland, the entire country can congratulate itself that the Democrats selected what was probably the Democrat best fitted for the Presidency in the country, a man of whom Republicans as well as Democrats may well be proud.

"In regard to the local situation, there is a great deal that might be said, but which, as already intimated, it might not be in the best taste for me to say at the present time. The facts speak for themselves and several important lessons are very obvious. I think it will not be out of place for me to say that it is gratifying that among the Democrats elected there were so many good men."

MUCH PATRONAGE ON ISLANDS FOR DEMOCRACY NOW

The Democratic landslide will prove epoch-making for the islands, juicy one it is expected to prove, full of a lot of exceedingly good things in the way of official salaries and honors.

Perhaps the foremost of these, in point of prominence, is that of the Governor. While Governor Frear declines as yet to make a statement:

cratic pork barrel, and a large, fat juicy one it is expected to prove, full of a lot of exceedingly good things in the way of official salaries and honors.

Waller Affirms Report He Would Accept Governorship

In Statement to Star-Bulletin Says is Candidate to Succeed Frear

Gilbert J. Waller, an old-line Democrat who has served the local organization as delegate to national conventions and as national committeeman, is a candidate for Governor of Hawaii by appointment of President-elect Wilson on assuming office.

This Mr. Waller frankly admitted to a Star-Bulletin reporter this morning. Asked if he was a candidate for the governorship, Mr. Waller said:

"Having been so persistently urged by the representative members of the Democratic party to become a candidate for Governor and being willing to do my utmost to further the interests of the party as expressed by them I have concluded to accept the office if tendered to me."

When my name was thrown on the screen as that of the next Governor last night, as has been reported in the morning paper, it was received with enthusiasm by the large assemblage on the street."

One or two other names were mentioned to Mr. Waller, as governorship possibilities heard about in gossip since the election, but he shook his head and said in effect that he did not think any of them were in the field for the prize.

Among other names bandied about in this connection is that of W. A. Kinney, now living on an estate that has fallen to him in Nova Scotia, but Mr. Kinney, in a letter to Judge Edmonds, has stated that in no circumstances would he seek the governorship.

Up to Democratic Party, Says McCandless.

L. L. McCandless, being asked if he was entertaining aspirations for the governorship, said:

"The matter of the Governorship has not yet been considered, and it is too soon for me to give any expression with regard to it."

"It is up to the Democratic party here who shall represent the Territory of Hawaii so far as the governorship goes. Whomever the party decides to support I suppose will be out next Governor."

"It may be through the regular organization, but there are different ways of finding out the wish of the party. Perhaps it might be through the medium of a mass meeting."

BUFFANDEAU ADJOURNS INVISIBLE MEETING

Eugene Buffandeau did not hold a meeting of the board of supervisors last night, but had the rare experience of adjourning an invisible session of that body. It was the statutory date for a regular meeting, but the supervisors were not there. It is believed that the city fathers were amusing themselves watching lantern slides of a landslide that is supposed to have taken place somewhere the same day. Anyway, they were not present on the stage of duty and the deputy clerk, after waiting more than a quarter of an hour, solemnly declared the meeting adjourned. Supervisor Murray entered the hall twenty-five minutes late and adjourned himself.

The giant Campanile provided for by the will of Mrs. Jane Sather to be erected on the campus of the University of California is soon to be commenced. It will be 300 feet high.
